Establishing committees does not diminish the responsibility of the Supervisory Board and the Supervisory Directors for obtaining information and forming an independent opinion. The committees cannot adopt resolutions on behalf of the Supervisory Board.

In case the Chairman and Vice-Chairman positions are vacant (ontstentenis) or if the Chairman and Vice-Chairman are unable to act (belet), meetings may be convened by any other Supervisory Director.
- 5.1.3 A notice period of eight days must be observed, unless there are urgent reasons to serve a shorter notice period. The notice sets out the meeting agenda. The Supervisory Director convening a meeting sets the agenda for that meeting. Supervisory Directors may submit agenda items to the Supervisory Director convening the meeting.

- 5.4.1 The Chairman or, if the Chairman is not present at the meeting, the Vice-Chairman chairs the meeting. If both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are not present at a meeting and the Chairman has not appointed another Supervisory Director as chairman of that meeting, the Supervisory Directors present at the meeting will appoint one of them as chairman of that meeting.

5.5 Adoption of resolutions - quorum requirements

- 5.5.1 The Supervisory Board can only pass resolutions at a meeting at which at least half of the members of the Supervisory Board entitled to vote is present or represented. If the quorum referred to in the preceding sentence is not reached at a meeting, no second meeting may be held in conformity with the provisions laid down by law.

5.5.2 In the event of any vacancy on the Supervisory Board, the Supervisory Board may nonetheless pass legally valid resolutions, provided that all Supervisory Directors in office are present or represented at the meeting.

5.5.3 The chairman of the meeting ensures that adopted resolutions are communicated to Supervisory Directors not present at the meeting without delay.

5.6 Adoption of resolutions - majority requirements

5.6.1 Each Supervisory Director has one vote.

5.6.2 Where possible, the Supervisory Board adopts its resolutions by unanimous vote. If this is not possible, the resolution is adopted by a simple majority of the votes cast, unless the Articles of Association or these Rules stipulate otherwise. In case of a tie of votes, the proposal shall be rejected.

5.6.3 If there is insufficient agreement on a proposed resolution during the meeting, the chairman of the meeting may defer the proposal for further discussion or withdraw the proposal.
